

BURLINGTON LUTHERAN CHURCH

October 2, 2022

17th Sunday after Pentecost

Blessing of the Animals

Welcome to worship! In your bulletin there is a Connect Card. Please fill it out if you'd like to sign up for our weekly informational emails and/or communicate with our office or Pastor. All are welcome to share in the sacrament of Holy Communion.

WELCOME & ANNOUNCEMENTS

LAND ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

We are on the ancestral homelands of the Upper Skagit peoples. We are grateful for their stewardship of our shared land & waterways since time immemorial. May we live consciously and respectfully, honoring treaties, and remembering that God created everything and we are to keep it sacred.

GREETING

The grace of Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

And also with you.

THE PRAYER OF ST. FRANCIS

One: Lord, make us instruments of your peace.

All: Where there is hatred, let us sow love;

One: Where there is injury, pardon;

All: Where there is doubt, faith;

One: Where there is despair, hope;

All: Where there is darkness, light;

One: Where there is sadness, joy.

O Divine One, Grant that we may

All: not so much seek to be consoled as to console;

One: To be understood as to understand;

All: To be loved as to love.

One: For it is in giving that we receive;

All: It is in pardoning that we are pardoned;

One: And it is in dying that we are born to eternal live.

Amen!

*Apprehend God in all things, for God is in all things.
Every single creature is full of God, and is a book about God.*

*Every creature is a word of God. If I spent enough time with the tiniest creature- even a caterpillar-
I would never have to prepare a sermon so full of God is every creature.*

-Meister Eckhart
13th century Christian mystic

OPENING SONG: "Oh, Sing to God Above" ELW 555

Verse 1      Oh, sing to God above
a hymn of joyful greeting,
a song of grateful love
in the new day's light repeating:
you made the sea and sky,
the sun and stars in splendor;
delight shone in your eye—
all your works were filled with wonder.

Refrain      Alleluia! Alleluia!
Oh, sing to God above: Alleluia!
Alleluia! Alleluia!
Oh, sing to God above: Alleluia!

Verse 2      Oh, sing to God above
a hymn of praise and blessing,
a song of grateful love,
hope and faith our hearts expressing:
creation lifts its voice
to tell your might and glory,
and we, too, will rejoice
to proclaim the saving story. *Refrain

Oh, sing to God above: Alleluia!

CHILDREN'S MESSAGE

After the message, children may head to Godly Play (ages 4-10) in the education wing

CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS

Blessed be the holy Trinity, † one God, who is eager to forgive and who loves us beyond our days.

Amen.

Dear friends, together let us acknowledge the occasions when we not live out the love to which Jesus calls us.

Silence is kept for reflection.

God of mercy and forgiveness,

We confess that we have harmed your good creation.
We have failed to do justice, love kindness, and walk humbly with you.
Turn us in a new direction.
Show us the path that leads to life.
Be our refuge and strength on the journey, through Jesus Christ, our redeemer and friend. Amen.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Creator, we come together to worship, to be together, and to thank you for the fellowship of other creatures, to celebrate their God-given lives, and to pray for compassionate hearts so we may care for them and for all your creation. Teach us how to love this world and ALL of its citizens. Amen.

THE READINGS

First Reading: Blessing of the Animals by Jan Richardson

You who created them and called them good:
bless again these creatures who come to us as a blessing
fashioned of fur or feather or fin, formed of flesh that breathes with your own breath,
that you have made from sheer delight,
that you have given in dazzling variety.
Bless them who curl themselves around our hearts who twine themselves through our days who companion us in our labor who call us to come and play.
Bless them who will never be entirely tamed
and so remind us that you love what is wild,
that you rejoice in what lives close to the earth,
that your heart beats in the heart of these creatures
you have entrusted to our care.

L: The Word of the Lord

C: thanks be to God.

Second Reading: Job 12:7-9 (The Message)

But ask the animals what they think—let them teach you; let the birds tell you what's going on. Put your ear to the earth—learn the basics. Listen—the fish in the ocean will tell you their stories.

L: The Word of the Lord

C: thanks be to God.

BLESSING OF THE ANIMALS

Gospel Acclamation: "Hallelujah" ELW 171

Hallelujah, hallelujah; halle, hallelujah.

Hallelujah, hallelujah; halle, hallelujah. (2x)

Gospel: Luke 17:5-10

<sup>5</sup>The apostles said to the Lord, "Increase our faith!" <sup>6</sup>The Lord replied, "If you had faith the size of a mustard seed, you could say to this mulberry tree, 'Be uprooted and planted in the sea,' and it would obey you."<sup>7</sup>"Who among you would say to your servant who has just come in from plowing or tending sheep in the field, 'Come here at once and take your place at the table'? <sup>8</sup>Would you not rather say to him, 'Prepare supper for me, put on your apron and serve me while I eat and drink; later you may eat and drink'? <sup>9</sup>Do you thank the servant for doing what was commanded? <sup>10</sup>So you also, when you have done all that you were ordered to do, say, 'We are worthless servants; we have done only what we ought to have done!'"

P: The Gospel of the Lord.

C: Praise to you, O Christ.

Blessed Are All Living Things

By Maureen Killoran

For the blessing of animal companions we give thanks.
For the beautiful ones, those whose fur is silky and whose tails are long;
whose feathers are brilliant or whose voices are splendid... we give thanks.
For the frantic ones, the runts and the hungry, who run for a food bowl or a pat as though this is life's last possible gift, we give thanks.
For the obnoxious ones, the heads that butt against us as we're trying to sleep;
the bodies that refuse to learn discretion as they make digestive gifts... we give thanks.
For those who bark and purr and growl and mew, for all who squeak or squawk or snarl or hiss, we give thanks.
For the animals unknown to us, those whose niche in life's web is fragile;
whose lives are insecure; for all who care for them and wish them well, we give thanks.
Blessed are the animals.
Blessed are the creatures who live with us and need our care.
Blessed are the mammals and the reptiles and the birds
who teach us we are not alone.
Blessed are all living things from whom we learn to love.

A Note From Your Pastor

When I was 20 years old and in the first week of a college summer mission, I realized that I was missing $200 of the cost for the mission. This caused me major panic - my parents weren't exactly enthusiastic about me being on this particular mission, and I didn't know how I could possibly pay for it. The stress weighed on me continually, and I didn't want to tell my parents about the shortfall. Essentially I was stuck: I was already on the mission, and I needed money that I didn't have.

In the second week of the mission I received a letter from a friend of my parents. She had heard about what I was doing and felt the Spirit prompting her to send me money. Out fell a $50 check, which was the first of four $50 checks that she said she would be sending me.

At that very moment I realized that I hadn't even prayed about this financial need. I had taken it all on myself to worry and fret, and apparently God knew my need already. Her act of listening to the Spirit and responding with generosity has stuck with me. She did not know I needed exactly $200; my parents told her I had already raised enough money for the mission. But it didn't matter, she was moved to give.

When I have sensed a particular call to give I have tried to follow suit, even if I haven't been able to give much. Over time the amounts have been able to be larger, but I do still try to pay close attention when I'm receiving a spiritual nudge to give.

At BLC we are starting a stewardship campaign this Fall, Leaning Generously Into Our Vision, during which we will hear about how BLC is making a difference in the lives of those within and those outside this church. Our aim is to build on the spirit of generosity and support for the mission of BLC that is already present here, not just to address our bottom line. Leaning Generously Into Our Vision begins this Sunday, Oct 2nd, and will conclude on Nov. 13 with Intent Sunday when we turn in our intent cards.

As this campaign begins, please consider your experience with generosity. Who in your life has modeled generosity? How do I want to cultivate my own generosity? What is happening at BLC, or what do I want to be happening through BLC, that I want to support? We have several weeks to listen and discern. There is no pressure, no set expectations, just an open invitation to live into our mission together.

In peace,

Pastor Charis
